

Daniel Gale Sotheby's Takes Gold Circle of Excellence Agents to Palm Beach

High Achieving Agents Honored with Luxury Trip

*Cold Spring Harbor, NY...December 16, 2011...*For more than 20 years, Daniel Gale Sotheby's International Realty (DGSIR), one of the nation's leading realtors, has invited its top sales professionals to join the organization's President and CEO Patricia Petersen for an exclusive off-site three-day business conference. Representing the highest level of achievement at Daniel Gale Sotheby's, "The Gold Circle of Excellence" is reserved for the top 10% of its sales associates. Sixty-eight agents were named to the Gold Circle in 2011.

This year's destination for some high-powered networking and well-earned relaxation was The Breakers, the legendary oceanfront resort in Palm Beach, Florida.

“The Gold Circle trip is one of the highlights of the year, personally and professionally,” says Ms. Petersen. “Our top performers are rewarded with the pampering that comes with a well deserved retreat and we all reap the benefits of the opportunity to share ideas in a beautiful, relaxed setting.”

Recreational activities included a golf tournament at the Breakers West, lunch and private instruction at the National Croquet Center, a catamaran adventure, a water taxi tour of Palm Beach, shopping on Worth Avenue and dinners at some of Palm Beach’s finest restaurants, including the Café Boulud at the Brazilian Court Hotel. The Breakers is known for its beautiful private beachfront, French Riviera style beach club, waterfront pools and whirlpool spas.
